THE COMPANY

Investment objective

The Company's Investment Objective is to invest in the global healthcare sector with the objective of achieving a high level of capital growth. In order to achieve its investment objective, the Company invests worldwide in a diversified portfolio of shares in pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies and related securities in the healthcare sector. It uses gearing, and derivative transactions to mitigate risk and also enhance returns.

Investment Strategy

The implementation of the Company's Investment Objective has been delegated to OrbiMed by Frostrow (as AIFM) under the Board's and Frostrow's supervision and guidance.

While the Board's strategy is to allow flexibility in managing the investments, in order to manage investment risk it has imposed various investment, gearing and derivative guidelines and limits, within which Frostrow and OrbiMed are required to manage the investments, as set out below.

Any material changes to the Investment Objective, Policy and Benchmark or the investment, gearing and derivative guidelines and limits require approval from shareholders.

Investment limits and guidelines

- The Company will not invest more than 10% of its gross assets in other closed ended investment companies (including investment trusts) listed on the London Stock Exchange, except where the investment companies themselves have stated investment policies to invest no more than 15% of their gross assets in other closed ended investment companies (including investment trusts) listed on the London Stock Exchange;
- The Company will not invest more than 15% of the portfolio in any one individual stock at the time of acquisition;
- At least 60% of the portfolio will normally be invested in larger companies (i.e. with a market capitalisation of at least U.S.$5bn);
- At least 20% of the portfolio will normally be invested in smaller companies (i.e. with a market capitalisation of less than U.S.$5bn);
- Investment in unquoted securities will not exceed 10% of the portfolio at the time of acquisition;
- A maximum of 5% of the portfolio, at the time of acquisition, may be invested in each of debt instruments, convertibles and royalty bonds issued by pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies;
- A maximum of 20% of the portfolio, at the time of acquisition, may be invested in companies in each of the following sectors:
 - healthcare equipment and supplies
 - healthcare technology
 - healthcare providers and services.

Derivative strategy and limits

In line with the Investment Objective, derivatives are employed, when appropriate, in an effort to enhance returns and to improve the risk-return profile of the Company's portfolio. There are two types of derivatives currently employed within the portfolio: Options and Equity Swaps; The Board has set the following limits within which derivative exposures are managed:

- Derivative transactions (excluding equity swaps) can be used to mitigate risk and/or enhance capital returns and will be restricted to a net exposure of 5% of the portfolio; and,
- Equity Swaps may be used in order to meet the Company's investment objective of achieving a high level of capital growth and counterparty exposure through these is restricted to 8% of the gross assets of the Company at the time of acquisition.

The Company does not currently hedge against foreign currency exposure.

Gearing limits

The Board and Frostrow believe that shareholder returns can be enhanced through the use of borrowings at appropriate times for the purpose of investment. The Board has set a maximum gearing level, through borrowing, of 20% of the net assets. OrbiMed are responsible for deciding on the appropriate level of gearing at any one time, subject to acting within the 20% limit.

Leverage

The Company's borrowing policy, set by the Board, is that borrowings will not exceed 20% of the Company's net asset value. The Company's borrowing requirements are met through the utilisation of an overdraft facility, repayable on demand, provided by J.P. Morgan Clearing Corp New York, which can be drawn at the discretion of the Company and the AIFM.

Up to 140% of the value of the outstanding overdraft can be taken as collateral by J.P. Morgan Clearing Corp New York. Such assets may be used, loaned, sold, rehypothecated or transferred by J.P. Morgan Clearing Corp New York. The Company is afforded protection under both SEC rules and U.S. legislation in relation to the assets that are taken as collateral.

The Board's guidelines are within the borrowing limits set by the Company's Articles of Association, being twice the adjusted total of the Company's capital and reserves.

The AIFMD prescribes two methods of measuring and expressing leverage (as opposed to gearing) and requires disclosure of the maximum amount of 'leverage' the Company might be subject to. The definition of leverage is wider than that of gearing and includes exposures that are not considered to contribute to gearing.

In accordance with the AIFM Directive the Board has set leverage limits of 140% under the gross method and 140% under the commitment method.

The Company will disclose the following on its website at the same time as it makes its annual report and accounts available to investors or more frequently in the event of the following:

- any changes to the maximum level of leverage that the AIFM may employ on behalf of the Company;
- any changes to the right of reuse of collateral or any guarantee granted under the leveraging arrangements; and
- the total amount of leverage employed by the Company.

Investment techniques

The team at OrbiMed work constantly to identify sources of outperformance, or alpha, with a focus on fundamental research. In healthcare, there are many primary sources of alpha generation, especially in therapeutics. Clinical events such as the publication of new clinical trial data is a prominent example and historically has been the largest source of share price volatility. Regulatory events, such as new drug approvals by U.S., European, or Japanese regulatory authorities are also stock moving events. Subsequent new product launches are carefully tracked and forecasted. Other sources include legal events and, of course, merger and acquisition activity.

The team has a global focus with a universe of coverage that covers the entire spectrum of companies, from early stage companies with pre-clinical assets to full integrated biopharmaceutical companies. The universe of actively covered companies is approaching 1,000. OrbiMed emphasises investments in companies with underappreciated products in the pipeline, high quality management teams, and adequate financial resources. A disciplined portfolio construction process is utilised to ensure the portfolio is focused on high conviction positions. Finally, the portfolio is subject to rigorous risk management process to moderate portfolio volatility.

The Company is required to obtain the prior approval of shareholders, by ordinary resolution, to any material change to its published Investment Policy. The Company will announce any such change through a Regulatory Information Service.

Risk in connection with derivatives

The Company may use various derivative instruments, including options and swaps, as part of its investment strategy in order to mitigate risk and also to enhance returns. Some of these derivative instruments may be volatile and speculative in nature, and may be subject to wide and sudden fluctuations in market value. Derivatives, especially over-the-counter derivatives in the form of a privately negotiated contract against a principal counterparty, may also be subject to adverse valuations reflecting the counterparty's valuations, which may not correspond to the valuations of other market or exchange traded instruments. In addition, derivative instruments also may not be liquid in all circumstances, so that in volatile markets the Company may not be able to exit its position without incurring a loss. Investing in derivative instruments can result in large amounts of gearing, which may magnify the gains and losses experienced by the Company and could cause the Company's net asset value to be subject to wider fluctuations than would otherwise be the case.

Any use of put and call options by the Company will entail additional risks. Although an option buyer's risk is limited to the amount of the original investment for the purchase of the option, an investment in an option may be subject to greater fluctuation than an investment in the underlying securities.

In addition, the Company would be exposed to the credit risk of the counterparty bank or other market maker writing any derivative instrument.

Dividend policy

It is the Company's policy to pursue capital growth for shareholders and to pay dividends to the extent required to maintain investment trust status. The Annual Report and Accounts on the Company's website contains details of dividends paid and proposed in respect of the relevant financial year.

RISK FACTORS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Key risks

The Company's key risks and the procedures in place for the management of those risks are set out in the Annual Report and Accounts which can be found at www.worldwidewh.com

The Company reports in its Half Year Report and Accounts, which can be found at www.worldwidewh.com, whether the key risks have changed since the year end.

Risks in connection with leverage

The Company can employ leverage, that is to seek to enhance returns to shareholders by borrowing funds for investment or entering into derivative transactions. Where the Company is levered, its net asset value and share price performance would be expected to represent an amplification of any upward or downward movement in the value of the portfolio as a result of price changes of the investments contained within. Shareholders should be aware that, whilst the use of leverage should enhance the returns to shareholders where the value of the Company's underlying assets is rising, it will have the opposite effect where the underlying asset value is falling.

A fall in the value of the Company's investments may cause the Company to sell investments in order to reduce leverage, which in turn may give rise to a significant loss of value of the investments, as well as a reduction in income from investments.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Risk profile

In accordance with the AIFM Rules, the AIFM will ensure that the current risk profile of the Company and the risk management systems employed by the AIFM to manage those risks in relation to the Company's portfolio is published in the Company's annual report and audited accounts, which can be found on the Company's website www.worldwidewh.com

Risk management systems

The AIFM has established risk management systems in order to manage key risks. Further details regarding the risk management process is available from the AIFM, on request.

Liquidity risk management

The AIFM maintains a liquidity management policy to monitor the liquidity risk of the Company. Shareholders have no right to redeem their Ordinary Shares from the Company but may trade their Ordinary Shares on the secondary market. However, there is no guarantee that there will be a liquid market in the Ordinary Shares.

Further details regarding the liquidity management is available from the AIFM, on request.

In accordance with the AIFM Rules, the AIFM will ensure that the following information in relation to the Company's portfolio is published in the Company's annual report and audited accounts, which can be found on the Company's website www.worldwidewh.com :

- the percentage of the Company's assets which are subject to special arrangements arising from their illiquid nature;
- any new arrangements for managing the liquidity of the Company; and
- the current risk profile of the Company and the risk management systems employed by the AIFM to manage those risks.

Professional negligence liability risks

The AIFM maintains professional indemnity insurance at the level required under the AIFM Rules in order to cover potential liability risks arising from professional negligence.
